ITEM 1: Introduction and Overview

This brochure supplement dated 1/26/2026 provides information about Bashar Qasem that supplements the Azzad Asset Management's brochure. You should have received a copy of that brochure.

Please contact Lejeana Love, love@kbc.team if you did not receive Azzad Asset Management's brochure, or if you have any questions about the contents of this supplement.

Additional information about Mr. Qasem is available on the SEC's website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

ITEM 2: Educational, Background and Business Experience

Bashar Qasem is Chief Executive Officer of Azzad Asset Management and is the firm's principal shareholder. Mr. Qasem serves as Chairman and Director on the Board of Trustees of the Azzad Mutual Funds. He is also an Investment Adviser Representative and sits on the Investment Committee at Azzad Asset Management, Inc.

Having founded Azzad in 1997, he assists clients with their investment policy statements, retirement, college planning and other financial needs. Mr. Qasem also assists small businesses with establishing their qualified retirement plans (such as 401K and profit-sharing plans) and organizations with their charitable giving needs. He is a frequent speaker on faith based socially responsible investing at conferences in the United States and abroad.

Born July 1964 and raised in Kuwait, Mr. Qasem graduated from the University of Jordan with a BS in Electrical Engineering. He also has post graduate work in Business Administration from South Eastern University in Washington DC.

Mr. Qasem has held Series 6 (Investment Company Products/Variable Life Contracts Representative Exam) and 26 (Investment Company (Mutual Funds) Principal) licenses. He currently holds Series 65 license (Uniform Investment Advisor). He earned his CSAA® (Certified Shari'ah Adviser and Auditor) designation in 2009 and is a member of AAOIFI (Accounting and Auditing Organization for Islamic Financial Institutions).

Under Mr. Qasem's leadership, Azzad developed and pioneered an automated approach to its faith-based, socially responsible screening process. Azzad Asset Management also developed an approach to managing strategically allocated broadly diversified portfolios of individual models for socially conscious investors based on the modern portfolio theory. He also designed the first Waqf trust document agreement to be used with private foundations as a Waqf devise in the United States.

Mr. Qasem currently resides in the suburbs of Washington DC with his wife and three children.

Designations:

Series 65 License (Uniform Investment Advisor)

The Uniform Investment Advisor Law Examination (Series 65 license) is required by anyone intending to provide any kind of financial advice or service on a noncommission basis. It is designed to qualify candidates as investment adviser representatives. The exam for this license was substantially expanded in 2000 to become a 180-minute exam. The exam now not only covers the rules and regulations pertaining to registered investment advisers, but also various investment vehicles and disciplines, economics, ethics and analysis.

Certified Shari'ah Adviser and Auditor (CSAA)

The CSAA certification program is the only credential designed specifically for financial professionals specialized in Islamic finance who want to attain a level of competency as an advanced investment consultant in Islamic finance. The CSAA program is designed to equip candidates with the requisite technical understanding and professional skills required for the international Islamic banking and finance industry. Applicants must successfully pass an examination.

ITEM 3: Disciplinary Information

Mr. Qasem has no disciplinary history.

ITEM 4: Other Business Activities

A. Investment-Related Activities

1. Mr. Qasem is the Chairman and a Board Director for the Azzad Mutual Funds. In order to stem any conflict of interest, he does not receive any compensation for his service in these positions.

ITEM 2: Educational, Background and Business Experience

Samer Eshrawy is an Investment Adviser Representative/Financial Planner at Azzad Asset Management, Inc. Having joined Azzad in 2025, he is responsible for assisting clients with their investment policy statements, retirement and college planning and other complex financial planning needs. Prior to his employment with Azzad, Mr. Eshrawy was a Financial Advisor at Modera Wealth Management, where he provided financial planning and investment management services to High-Net-Worth Individuals and Organizations. Prior to his employment at Modera, he was a Private Client Banker at J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. Where he assisted individuals with their investment, lending, and banking needs.

Born December 1993 and raised in New Jersey, Samer graduated Cum Laude from William Paterson University in 2021 with a BS degree in Financial Planning. Mr. Eshrawy earned his CFP (Certified Financial Planner) designation in 2022. He currently resides in Northern NJ with his wife and son.

Designations:

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®): 2022

The CFP® certification is recognized in the United States (and a number of other countries) for its (1) high standards of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, there are over 62,000 individual who have obtained the CFP® certification in the United States.

The qualifications for attaining the Certified Financial Planner designation include a bachelor's degree (or higher) or its equivalent in any discipline, from an accredited college or university. Equivalents are defined as: Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC); Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU); Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA); PhD in business or economics; Doctor of Business Administration; Licensed attorney- inactive license acceptable or Licensed Certified Public Accountant(CPA)-inactive license acceptable.

In addition to the degree requirement above, each designee must take an exam that covers topics such as:

- General Principles of Financial Planning
- Insurance Planning & Risk Management
- Employee Benefits Planning
- Investment Planning
- Income Tax Planning
- Retirement Planning
- Estate Planning

The exam, administered over a two-day period, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances.

In addition, CFP candidates are required to complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year) and are bound by the CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP professionals. They must also complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years to maintain competence and stay up to date with developments in the financial planning field.

Series 65 License (Uniform Investment Advisor)

The Uniform Investment Advisor Law Examination (Series 65 license) is required by anyone intending to provide any kind of financial advice or service on a non-commission basis. It is designed to qualify candidates as investment adviser representatives. The exam for this license was substantially expanded in 2000 to become a 180-minute exam. The exam now not only covers the rules and regulations pertaining to registered investment advisers, but also various investment vehicles and disciplines, economics, ethics and analysis.
