ITEM 2: Educational, Background and Business Experience

Ibtasam “Raj” Mahmood is an Investment Adviser Representative of Azzad Asset Management. Having joined Azzad in 2019, he is responsible for assisting clients with their investment policy statements, retirement and college planning and other complex financial planning needs. Prior to his employment with Azzad, Mr. Mahmood was a financial advisor at AMJ Financial Wealth Management where he helped to create comprehensive financial plans for affluent clients. Prior to joining AMJ, Mr. Mahmood was a branch manager at TD Ameritrade where he was responsible for managing the daily activities of investment consultants as well as the sales team.

Born September 1981 and raised in Virginia, Mr. Mahmood graduated from George Mason University in 2004 with a BS degree in Decision Sciences & Management Information Systems. He is currently pursuing his CFP (Certified Financial Planner) certification examination. Mr. Mahmood holds the Series 7 (General Securities Representative Examination) and Series 66 licenses (Uniform Combined State Security Agent and Investment Advisor Representative) and the Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor (CRPC) designation. He currently resides in Virginia with his wife and children.

Designations

Series 7 License (General Securities Representative)
The General Securities Representative (Series 7 license) is required by anyone who wants to enter the securities industry to sell any type of security. It is designed to assess the competency of entry level General Securities

Representatives. The examination is six hours long and consists of two hundred and eighty multiple choice questions. It covers a broad range of investments including stocks, bonds, options, limited partnerships and investment company products.

Series 66 License (Uniform Combined State Law)
The Uniform Combined State Law (Series 66 license) is administered by the North American Securities Administrators Association (NASAA) and is equivalent to the successful completion of both the Series 63 and Series 65 exams. It is required by certain states in order for an investment professional to qualify for registration as an Investment Advisor Representative and as a securities agent representing a broker deal.

The Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor or CRPC® designation is the end result of a comprehensive program that helps financial advisers master the entire retirement planning process, going far beyond retirement income. The program is the industry benchmark for retirement planning credentials. The program is a three-semester graduate-level course consisting of nine modules that encompass pre-and post-retirement needs, asset management, estate planning and the entire retirement planning process using models and techniques from real client situations. Additionally, candidates must pass an end of course examination that tests their ability to synthesize complex concepts and apply theoretical concepts to real-life situations. Designees renew their designation every two-years by completing 16 hours of continuing education, reaffirming adherence to the Standards of Professional Conduct and complying with self-disclosure requirements.
