INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE & STRATEGY

The International Portfolio consists primarily of American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) with market capitalizations greater than $10 billion, of established companies either domiciled outside the United States or whose primary business is conducted outside the United States. The portfolio aims to achieve a return equal or greater than the MSCI All Country World Index ACWI Ex USA. A top-down global analysis combines with a bottom up security selection approach to construct a diversified portfolio. A global analysis of prevailing economic market and political conditions drives investment themes as well as country and sector allocations. Fundamental analysis identifies quality companies with durable business models and sustainable competitive advantages. Of course, stocks must also pass Azzad's socially responsible investment criteria. The portfolio generally holds fewer than 50 stocks and was created on December 3, 2012.

HISTORY OF MANAGER

Scout Investments manages the International Portfolio. They are an institutional investment management firm registered with the Securities & Exchange Commission and located in Missouri. In November 2017, Scout was acquired by Carillon Tower Advisors, a subsidiary of Raymond James Financial. Scout managed $24.2 billion in equity and fixed-income assets as of September 30, 2019. The firm manages assets for corporations, public pensions and endowments and is the investment advisor to eleven mutual funds. Several portfolio managers who designed the investment process for the Scout Funds have continuously implemented their original strategies since inception, demonstrating impressive management continuity.

Investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. Please read the following important disclosures.

Investing in foreign securities, even if traded as ADRs, involves risks not typically associated with U.S. investments, including, among others, adverse fluctuations in foreign currency values as well as adverse political, social and economic developments affecting a foreign country, inflation risk and more volatile performance. Investing in emerging market securities imposes risks greater than investing in foreign developed countries.

Moreover, to the extent that a portfolio favors a growth style, the risk is that the values of growth securities may be more sensitive to changes in current or expected earnings than the values of other securities. To the extent a portfolio uses a value style, the risk is that the market will not recognize a security's intrinsic value for a long time, or that a stock judged to be undervalued may actually be appropriately priced.

Investments in securities involve risks and there is no guarantee that a strategy will achieve its objectives. As with all stock investments, you may lose money investing in a portfolio. Azzad's portfolios generally avoid companies in certain economic sectors and businesses due to Azzad's socially responsible investment restrictions. Therefore, their performance may suffer if these sectors and/or businesses outperform the overall stock market.

Each portfolio is nondiversified and may invest a larger percentage of its assets in fewer companies exposing it to more volatility and/or market risk than a diversified portfolio. Each portfolio is generally available only through one of Azzad's asset allocation strategies and is not designed by itself to be a comprehensive, diversified investment plan.

All of Azzad's models are actively managed. Active trading of securities may increase your account's short-term capital gains or losses, which may affect the taxes you pay. Short-term capital gains are taxed as ordinary income under federal income tax laws.

When reviewing your actual performance, holdings and asset allocation, note that different accounts, even though they are traded pursuant to the same strategy, can have varying results. The reasons for this include: i) the period of time in which the accounts are active; ii) the timing of contributions and withdrawals; iii) the account size; iv) the minimum investment requirements and/or withdrawal restrictions; and v) the actual fees charged to an account. There can be no assurance that an account opened by any person will achieve performance returns similar to those provided herein.

You should consider investing in the Ethical Wrap Program if you are looking for long-term returns and are willing to accept the associated risks. The Ethical Wrap Program is made available through a Wrap Brochure which contains important information about our firm, strategies, risks and conflicts of interest. Please request a copy of our Wrap Brochure, Part 2A of the firm's Form ADV and your representative's Part 2B by calling 888.862.9923 before investing in the Wrap Program or opening an account with us.
