

Azzad Wise Capital Fund
(Ticker: WISEX)
First Halal Fixed Income Fund

September 30, 2021
3rd Quarter Fact Sheet

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE & STRATEGY

The Azzad Wise Capital Fund pursues long-term income and capital preservation by investing primarily in Islamic bonds (sukuk), interest-free bank deposits and notes issued primarily by overseas banks in developing countries, and trade finance. A small portion of the Fund's assets may be invested in dividend-yielding stocks. Using a thorough due diligence process, the investment team seeks to identify fixed income investments that are suitable for more conservative investors and in line with the Adviser's investment philosophy.

Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses of the Azzad Wise Capital Fund carefully before investing. A prospectus with this and other information about the Fund may be obtained by calling 888.350.3369 or by visiting our website, www.azzadasset.com. Read the prospectus carefully before investing or sending money. The Fund may not achieve its objective and/or you could lose money on your investment in the Fund. Stock markets and investments in individual stocks can decline significantly in response to issuer, market, economic, political, regulatory, geographical, and other conditions. International investments involve special risks, including currency fluctuation, lower liquidity, different accounting methods and economic and political systems, and higher transaction costs. These risks typically are greater in emerging markets. The Fund's portfolio holdings are subject to change. The Fund disclaims any obligation to advise investors of such changes. For the purpose of determining the Fund's holdings, securities of the same issuer are aggregated to determine the weight in the Fund. The Fund is non-diversified with a high concentration of securities in the financial sector, which can expose the Fund to more volatility and/or market risk than diversified funds. The Fund may not achieve its objective and/or could lose money on your investment in the Fund. The Fund mainly invests in securities issued by foreign entities. This exposes the Fund to country specific risks such as market, economic, political, regulatory, geographical, and other risks. The Fund intends to invest in certain instruments that may be illiquid. As a result, if the Fund receives large amount of redemptions, the Fund may be forced to sell such illiquid investments at a significant loss to be able to meet such redemption requests. See the prospectus for more details about risks. Portfolio characteristics including holdings and sector allocation information are for illustrative purposes only and may change.
